Cannon Shots welcome in Flag Raising 2012!

Annapolis, Maryland was certainly an ideal location for our 2012 Flag Raising event. Annapolis Landing Marina (ALM) could not have been more accommodating to the 15 member vessels in attendance for this event.

Fleet Captain, Dana Morrison did an outstanding job of pulling this first boating event of the season together and even got the weather Gods to bless us with a beautiful weekend! Saturday's Ceremony was well attended inclusive of 9 Past Commodores! Remembrance of those who passed in the last year were honored by Fleet Chaplin Ricely singing "Amazing Grace", Haley Collins ringing the club bell and Vice Commodore C. Morrison piping. Dinner following the ceremony was attended by 53 members and guests

Commodore Chatter

Flag Raising 2012 was a wonderful gathering of friends, special guests and beautiful boats. Friday night's BBQ was really fun and the food was delicious! Thanks again to our grill masters, Tom Miller, Craig Collins, Suzanne Collins and Dana Morrison! There were many wonderful side dishes brought and, I have heard through the grapevine, that one table had the delicious desserts as appetizers! Well, life is short...guess these folks had the right idea!

Saturday's beautiful weather gave us all the opportunity to relax. Members could be found wandering the streets of Annapolis, sitting by the pool, visiting with friends or catching a nap in the shade! I even joined one group for oyster shooters!

There also seemed to be way too much fun on "Escapade" one evening. Thanks to Phyllis and Harry for lettinø me have some quiet time.

Mid Summer Rendezvous – Skipjack Cove!

Time is quickly approaching for the Mid Summer Rendezvous being held at Skipjack Cove Yachting Resort. What a great location on the Sassafras River!

Boats in attendance should be outstanding since many of our club members are berthed there. We have asked them to shuffle their slips so it still feels like a weekend away! (That would be Commodore humor!)

Friday night will be our ever entertaining cocktail hour at the pavilion with members bringing their favorite Hors d'oeuvre to share. Saturday night dinner at Kitty Knight House via transportation by two local launches. Sunday, Danish and local pastries.

It will be a weekend to relax and catch-up with everyone. See old friends, old boats and make some new friends. What a great way to enjoy your vessel and cruise the Chesapeake Bay.

Fleet Captain, Dana Morrison is out doing herself on events this year. Don't miss out on the charm of the little town of Georgetown, the beauty of the Sassafras River, or the sunsets that many in the club enjoy every weekend.

Flag Raising Dates: June 8-10, 2012

Skipjack Cove Yachting Center on the Sassafras River provides a tranquil spot for our Mid-Summer Rendezvous!

RSVP for this event today unless you want to miss out on the fun.

Guest Incentive Program

Encourage a guest to attend by boat and join in on the fun!

See if you can identify everyone above

Starting this 2012 rendezvous season, the CYCA Board has initiated a guest incentive program to help encourage new membership.

When the guest of an active member attends a rendezvous on their own qualifying boat, the guest will attend the Saturday night dinner on the Club. The dinners for up to two guests of the same vessel will have complimentary meals at that Saturday evening event.

We encourage all members to invite friends or marina mates with classic vessels to come experience our club. CYCA is only as strong as its membership.

CYCA Merchandise at Events

Starting at the Mid-Summer Rendezvous, a limited amount of CYCA merchandise will be available on Friday and Saturday. This will most likely be our demand items like hats, canvas bags and a few t-shirts!

The Bridge and Board contribute greatly to the success of the club year and devote many hours to provide a great season. I am fortunate to be part of an outstanding team. Please be sure to thank them through out the year for their efforts:
