G-Dock take over at Bay Bridge Marina for Festival

CYCA took over G-dock at Bay Bridge Marina for our Classic Yacht Festival. A little rain Saturday morning but other wise a glorious boating weekend with great food, wonderful friends and beautiful boats! Another amazing turnout of 20 boats with two of them being potential new members. Saturday night dinner included 63 members under tent with a gentle breeze, great food and a sunset that was breath taking.

The Festival and viewing of member boats was great fun and everyone loved the member participation gift of the umbrellas. Nice job to R/C Collins on that! One more time I get to say how honored I am to work with the amazing Fleet Captain Dana Morrison!!!

Commodore Chatter

Not naming boats but I will say I saw more aft deck parties this weekend even on Saturday night, which is normally the quiet night. Our clubs reputation for fun is becoming known internationally because we even had two guests from Paris, France. The Simonnet's are bringing culture to this motley crew! Just kidding - about the motley crew, that is. ☺

Your Commodore can't remember a rendezvous when he laughed so much starting with the Friday night poolside cocktail party. I am happy to report even with the open bar Commodore's Cocktail Party on Saturday evening everyone behaved. There was no heckling from the crowd as official duties were carried out. It is a shame the people in this club just don't know how to have a good time! Wink, wink! The love and respect we share is priceless. Laughs -priceless too!

Respectfully, Commodore Ramia

Rock Hall is our venue for Late Summer Rendezvous

I am not sure if we can beat the Festival Rendezvous for fun and laughs but I bet you can certainly give it a try. Haven Harbour on Swan Creek is the site for our final boating event of the season on September 21 - 23, 2012.

Fleet Captain Morrison has us starting Friday evening with cocktail hour at the gazebo! V/C Morrison will be selling ships store wares. Remember limited quantities! Saturday day allows for easy access into the charming town of Rock Hall. Shops in Rock Hall include local artist wares, antiques and good old fashion mom and pop shops.

Saturday evening Fleet Captain

Morrison has a Crab Feast and Eastern Shore Picnic lined up. Good eats and good conversation. You are not going to want to miss out on the local crabs, pulled pork or barbeque chicken.

Saturday late morning at 10:45 - 11:45 our own Fred Shallcross will do a workshop on U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary vessel safety checks. He will talk about those things you never think about. Safe boating is happy boating. Don't miss our educational workshop of the season!

Help our Fleet Captain out and return those reservations as soon as you get them. We are looking to end the season with another record turnout.

CYCA Merchandise at Events

The limited item ships store has been a hit at the last two events. You have to move fast but I saw some stunning women in fabulous pink polos with the CYCA logo at the festival. Rock Hall merchandise will include a blanket or two, the new CYCA umbrellas and who knows what else I may surprise you with. Cash and Carry!!!

Ladies, Bill Bunting looked pretty handsome in his khaki polo at the festival. Better dress your guys up!
